Gemini pricing jumps, Active Graph, and the collective intelligence argument

2026-05-20 / 00:07:23

“I think this anthropomorphizing of intelligence and understanding all that is not necessary, not appropriate, and is a distraction for many, many problems.”

— Seln Oriax, today's narration

Today we look at Gemini 3.5 Flash's steep pricing shift, Karpathy's move to Anthropic, Yohei Nakajima's Active Graph, NVIDIA's SANA-WM, and Michael I. Jordan's critique of AGI framing.
